

The Ranch Hand

Annual Memorial Edition
Volume 39, Number 1 ~ Winter 2019-2020

“Providing a safe home for youth who have experienced physical or emotional trauma, where every act is done with love to help them discover the dignity of the human person and learn the skills to manage life’s challenges.”

HOTR Offers Many Paths to Hope

Home On The Range was founded in 1949 by Father Elwood Cassidy, a Catholic priest. Father Cassidy knew that spiritual guidance was something the “wayward boys” needed, and that this would help them overcome life’s struggles, challenges and disappointments.

Fast forward to 2019, and the spiritual development component at Home On The Range continues to be a strong asset within our programming. The difference now, is the many different options, and choices, children can do to participate and grow in their faith.

When a child comes to Home On The Range, Josh Helvik, Pastoral Assistant, interviews the child and asks about their religious preference, faith and spiritual background, experience and understanding. He works with each child to see that their specific religious needs are met.

Home On The Range offers traditional spiritual tract programming such as attending the Catholic, Lutheran or Evangelical Churches, or a service in the Holy Family Chapel. The children can also sign up for prayer groups, Bible study, attend presentations of guest ministers and inspirational speakers, watch family or Christian-based movies, or sing on praise night.

Recently, over a short period of time, Josh saw decline in children participating in the traditional, religious-based services and groups. Instead, the children were choosing to attend the Moral Development group because they didn’t have a religious connection or affiliation. Moral Development teaches children about some very basic core values, such as fairness, caring, trustworthiness, respect, integrity, honesty, etc. This is important for the children to learn and understand, but Josh felt they were still missing a spiritual connection and aspect. Thus, “Home On The Range’s Freedom Church” evolved.

“When we get together on Tuesdays, we all are here with no judgement and it’s a free place where we are allowed to feel like we can ask any questions we want without feeling judged. Anyone is welcome on the Ranch to attend this church. You’re allowed to wear what you want, you’re allowed to get up and dance in worship even if you’re not that great at dancing. The point of this church is to make it our own so that everyone has a part of something great. I was asked to lead the music of the church and what I do is pick some spiritual songs that I can sing and I perform them and everyone is allowed to join in at any time and express themselves. I really enjoy feeling like I’m a part of something. This church allows anyone to take the role of a leader if they feel up to it and it has helped me get out of my comfort zone and try something new. The spiritual leaders out here at Home On The Range do a good job of making everyone feel welcome and comfortable.

They also care about us as people and it’s great to always know that someone has your back when you can’t have your own.” 17 year old girl at HOTR

Another thing Josh learned from his interviews with the children, is that most of them like music. He thought this would be another opportunity to connect with the children and form relationships. He did some fundraising, made plans, and took a small group of children to “Hills Alive” in South Dakota to listen to live Christian bands.

The children really enjoyed it, and Josh became inspired and very passionate about having a Christian concert at Home On The Range for all the boys and girls. On June 16, 2019, his vision came to fruition. SERV and Citizen Way performed Live. With a cross and Cassedy Hill as a backdrop, it proved to be an amazing concert, experience and ministry to everyone in attendance. The connection the band members made with the boys and girls was hard for the children to put into words. They said things like “Amazing,” “They understand me,” “Awesome,” “Unbelievable,” “It was emotional,” “It moved me,” and “Mysterious.” Plans are underway for next year’s concert. Watch for upcoming announcements for our Christian concert on June 15, 2020, to be held at the Theodore Roosevelt Medora Foundation’s amphitheater.

Josh leads, and offers other groups to help the children on the path towards a strong faith and a relationship with God, such as his physical work-out group, both indoors and outdoors. The children lift weights, run, hike, bike, etc. The hope is the children will find they are physically fit, which can lead to a strong spirit and healthy mindset.

There is also a cultural diversity group. Several staff show the children how to bead or teach them about other Native American crafts and traditions. It’s a different type of spirituality and everyone is welcome. The time and effort the children put into beading produces beautiful designs and gives them a sense of calmness, accomplishment and pride.

The best way to connect to the children is forming relationships and being a positive role-model. Josh spends a lot of time with the kids, forming a personal relationship with them. As a Christian, he demonstrates how to pray and have faith, how to ask for help and guidance through prayer, and how to pray for each other.

Josh, his mother Peggy, and many staff and volunteers work together to offer many paths and roads for the children to choose for their spiritual growth and development. Some are traditional, some non-traditional - but whichever path the child takes, it will lead them down the road to love, forgiveness, and ultimately hope.

The 3rd Annual Dakota Scramble for Home On the Range Golf Tournament will be on Sunday, June 28, 2020. It will be held at the Bully Pulpit Golf Course in Medora, ND. Call 701-872-3745 for more information.

Proceeds from the golf tournament will go toward our Spiritual Department.
